

Message from the President & CEO

During this month, there has been considerable background activities by multiple companies to bid for major contracts. We believe "inshalah" this will bring us excellent new business opportunities in the very near future.

Our HQ refurbishment project is almost complete with extra activities underway to prepare our showroom for our new products for sale.

Version 2 of our Coffee Table Book is now completed and being distributed to our Clients which is an aid to our presentations and Company Profiles.

Our Corporate Governance results for our Companies is excellent, and we express our sincere appreciation to all Divisional Managers for achieving these high standards thus supporting our Quality System Manager in her very difficult task.

I trust you find this month's issue interesting and look forward to advising you more of the exciting times in Dream Group in the coming months.

Mr. Jamal Alkooheji
President & CEO

BUSINESS UPDATES

Protect Security Services

To support the client's Fashion Festival held in Bahrain World Trade Centre on 25 September 2013, PSS provided additional Security Manpower.

With the help of our PSS Team on site, the event proved to be a huge success and positive feedback was given by the client.

Dream Group Coffee Table Book – Version 2

As Dream Group achieved its impressive growth over the past Year, it is always working hard to maintain standards and keep our profiles up to date.

Our Group have invested to re-produce the Coffee Table Book - Version 2, which our Company Managers have started distributing to our clients.

This will support the company with tenders and marketing, thus promoting our company to the highest standards possible.

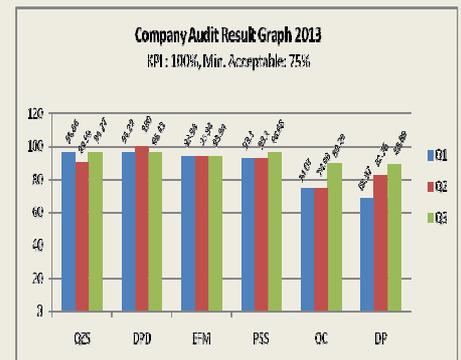

Dream Group Corporate Governance

'Company Audits'
