BUSINESS UPDATES

Message from the President & CEO

A joint training initiative with Civil Aviation Affairs delivered Airport specific Health and Safety Training and Security Training for all 264 members of the QZS team at the Airport.

Protect Security Services have won another Security Contract this time with the Bahrain Psychiatric Hospital providing 34 staff.

Our construction team with Dream Development have been instructed to deliver a higher scope to the project in Hamala increasing the contract value by a further Bhd200K.

Dream Ready Mix are busy working on the Integrated Management Quality System in preparation for their stage 2 Audit of the Certification.

As one of the many ways we show appreciation to our staff, a Sakhir Party was laid on where many staff and their families attended. Although it was a very windy day, a good time was had by all.

I trust you find this issue interesting and look forward to sharing more with you in the coming months.

Mr. Jamal Alkooheji
President & CEO
